HYMNS

1. WHAT A FRIEND WE HAVE IN JESUS

1. What a Friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit, O what need-less pain we bear,
All because we do not carry everything to God in prayer.

2. Have we trials and temptations? Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged; take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness; take it to the Lord in prayer.

3. Are we weak and heavy laden, cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge, take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do your friends despise, forsake you? Take it to the Lord in prayer!
In His arms He'll take and shield you; you will find a solace there.

4. Blessed Saviour, Thou hast promised
Thou wilt all our burdens bear
May we ever, Lord, be bringing all to Thee in earnest prayer.
Soon in glory bright unclouded there will be no need for prayer
Rapture, praise and endless worship, will be our sweet portion there.

2. NEARER MYGOD TO THEE

1. Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee;
E'en though it be a cross, That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee!

2. Though, like a wanderer, The sun gone down,
Darkness comes over me, My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be, Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee.

3. There let me see the sight, An open heav-en;
All that Thou sendest me, In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me, Nearer, my God, to hee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee.

4. Then, with my waking thoughts, Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs, Bethel I'll raise,
So by my woes to be, Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer, my God, to Thee, Nearer to Thee.

3. BLESSED ASSURANCE

1. Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

CHORUS
This is my story, this is my song,

Late Deaconess (Mrs.) Helen Aimie-Ikpomoyako
IYEKOWA (Nee IGBINOSUN)

HYMNS

Praising my Saviour, all the day long;
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Saviour, all the day long.

2.Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.

3.Perfect submission, all is at rest
I in my Saviour am happy and blest,
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love.

4. ALL TO JESUS I SURRENDER

1. All to Jesus I surrender,
All to Him I freely give;
I will ever love and trust Him,
In His presence daily live.

REFRAIN:
I surrender all,
I surrender all.
All to Thee, my blessed Savior,
I surrender all.

2. All to Jesus I surrender,
Humbly at His feet I bow,
Worldly pleasures all forsaken;
Take me, Jesus, take me now.

3. All to Jesus I surrender,
Make me, Savior, wholly Thine;
Let me feel Thy Holy Spirit,
Truly know that Thou art mine.

4. All to Jesus I surrender,
Lord, I give myself to Thee;
Fill me with Thy love and power,
Let Thy blessing fall on me.

5. All to Jesus I surrender,
Now I feel the sacred flame.
Oh, the joy of full salvation!
Glory, glory to His name!

5. MY HOPE IS BUILT ON NOTHING ELSE

1. My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness.
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly trust in Jesus' Name.

CHORUS
On Christ the solid Rock I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

2. When darkness seems to hide His face,
I rest on His unchanging grace.
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

3. His oath, His covenant, His blood,
Support me in the whelming flood.
When all around my soul gives way,

HYMNS

He then is all my Hope and Stay.

4. When He shall come with trumpet sound,
Oh may I then in Him be found.
Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

6. I HAVE FOUND A FRIEND IN JESUS

1. I have found a friend in Jesus, He's everything to me,
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul;
The Lily of the Valley, in Him alone I see
All I need to cleanse and make me fully whole.
In sorrow He's my comfort, in trouble He's my stay;
He tells me every care on Him to roll.

CHORUS
He's the Lily of the Valley, the Bright and Morning Star,
He's the fairest of ten thousand to my soul.

2.He all my grief has taken, and all my sorrows borne;
In temptation He's my strong and mighty tower;
I have all for Him forsaken, and all my idols torn
From my heart and now He keeps me by His power.
Though all the world forsake me, and Satan tempt me sore,
Through Jesus I shall safely reach the goal.

3.He will never, never leave me, nor yet forsake me here,
While I live by faith and do His blessed will;
A wall of fire about me, I've nothing now to fear,
From His manna He my hungry soul shall fill.
Then sweeping up to glory to see His blessed face,
Where the rivers of delight shall ever roll.

HYMNS FOR INTERMENT

1. WHEN THE ROLL IS CALLED UP YONDER

1. When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound, and time shall be no more,
and the morning breaks, eternal, bright and fair;
When the saved of earth shall gather over on the other shore,
And the roll is called up yonder,
I'll be there.

REFRAIN:
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder,
When the roll is called up yonder, I'll be there.

2. On that bright and cloudless morning when the dead in Christ shall rise,
and the glory of His resurrection share;
When His chosen ones shall gather to their home beyond the skies,
And the roll is called up yonder,
I'll be there.
[Refrain]

3. Let us labour for the Master
from the dawn till setting sun;
let us talk of all His wondrous love and care.
Then when all of life is over,
and our work on earth is done,
And the roll is called up yonder,
I'll be there.
[Refrain]

2. JERUSALEM ON HIGH

1. Jerusalem on high,
My song that city is,
My home whene'er I die,
The center of my bliss;

REFRAIN:
O happy place! When shall I be,
My God, with Thee, to see Thy face?

2. Thy walls, sweet city, thine,
With pearls are garnishèd;
Thy gates with praises shine,
Thy streets with gold are spread;

3. No sun by day shines there,
Nor moon by silent night;
Oh no! these needless are,
The Lamb's the city's light:

4. There dwells my Lord, my king,
Judged here unfit to live;
There angels to Him sing,
And lowly homage give;

5. The patriarchs of old
There from their travels cease;
The prophets there behold
Their longed for Prince of Peace;

6. The Lamb's apostles there
I might with joy behold,
The harpers I might hear
Harping on harps of gold;

7. The bleeding martyrs, they
Within those courts are found,
Clothed in pure array,
Their scars with glory crowned;

8. Ah me! ah me! that I
In Kedar's tent here stay;
No place like that on high;
Lord, thither guide my way;

3. HOLD THE FORT

1. Ho, my comrades! see the signal
Waving in the sky!
Reinforcements now appearing,
Victory is nigh.

REFRAIN
Hold the fort, for I am coming,
Jesus signals still;
Wave the answer back to Heaven,
By Thy grace we will.

2. See the mighty host advancing,
Satan leading on;
Mighty ones around us falling,
Courage almost gone!

3. See the glorious banner waving!
Hear the trumpet blow!
In our leader's name we triumph
Over ev'ry foe.

4. Fierce and long the battle rages,
But our help is near;
Onward comes our great commander,
Cheer, my comrades, cheer!

MY DEAREST,

SWEET AND SUPERHERO MOTHER,

Words cannot describe how much you have meant to me throughout all these years. Your passing to glory came as a great shock to me. It still feels like a dream. In all things, we give thanks to God Almighty, the Giver of Life.
You were like a beautiful book—once you started reading, you never wanted to put it down. You were a beautiful soul to everyone who crossed your path. You touched and transformed lives, drawing many closer to our Lord Jesus Christ through your character, kindness, and words of encouragement. Indeed, you were my role model.

Mummy, thank you for giving birth to me and for watching me grow, step by step, into the woman I have become today. You were truly an angel who lived among us. Your sacrifices, support, and unconditional love toward me and my family are immeasurable.

Your love, kindness, wisdom, and legacy will forever remain in our hearts and will never be forgotten.

Keep resting in the bosom of the Lord until we meet again, Mom. ♥♥♥

Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever missed.

THOUGHT OF MY

HEART ABOUT YOU (MUM) TO GOD

"I asked God why did you take HELEN AIMUPKOMOYAKO IYEKOWA so soon when she was such a beautiful soul affecting lives all around? And He replied because she completed the assignment I gave her faster than others. The world was not worthy of the goodness she carried. So, I brought her home. I asked again, but why didn't you give her more time to live? He said because I saw the storms you could not see. I protected her from the pain, the struggles and the hardships that were yet to come. You see death as a tragedy. I see it as a rescue or a portal to leave this earth realm. With tears in my eyes I asked then why does it have to hurt this much? Why leave me here carrying this pain? He answered because grief is love with no where to go. The depth of your pain is a reflection of the depth of the blessing I placed in your life. Finally, I asked how am I supposed to walk this earth without her light? He said you don't walk without it. You absorb her light. You carry it with you. The love, the lessons, the memories and the Legacies she left behind. Her light did not disappear. It became a part of you. She is not only in your past. She is waiting for you in a place where there is no goodbye."
And my last question to you reading this, will you also be in yonder place where all tears, pain and sorrows will be wiped out? (Think about this and don't be in a hurry to answer)
Rest in perfect peace my first Love

MY BELOVED .

MOTHER

Words cannot fully express the pain in my heart as I say farewell to you. You were more than a mother to me; you were my source of love, strength, wisdom, comfort, and encouragement. Your presence brought warmth to our lives, and your love was a precious gift that I will forever cherish. Thank you, Mum, for every sacrifice you made, every prayer you prayed, every lesson you taught me, and every moment you spent caring for our family. You gave so much of yourself to see us grow, and your love will continue to live in our hearts. You taught me the value of kindness, perseverance, faith, and compassion. Your words of wisdom will remain with me, and the memories we shared will never be forgotten. Though I wish I could have more time with you, I am grateful to God for the years He allowed us to have together. Your departure has left a great emptiness in our hearts, but we take comfort in knowing that your life was meaningful and that you touched many lives. We will continue to honour your memory by living according to the values you taught us and by carrying your legacy of love forward.

Mum, I will miss your voice, your smile, your presence, and the special way you made everything feel better. I will miss being able to call you and simply knowing that you were there. As I say goodbye, I choose to hold on to gratitude rather than sorrow—to be thankful that God blessed me with a mother like you. Rest peacefully, my dear Mother. Your journey on earth has ended, but your love, your lessons, and your memories will remain with us forever. Until we meet again, I will carry you in my heart.

Farewell, my beloved Mother. You were deeply loved, you are greatly missed, and you will never be forgotten.
Rest in the peace of the Lord.

SWEET MOTHER

The statement, sweet mother, is popular in a song but you made it my daily experience. Your presence brought joy and peace. You never competed with or envied anyone rather, you made sure everyone around you became the best.
Love and act of service was your lifestyle, nothing was too small or too big to be given out as a gift.
Your love and encouragement for the pursuit of the things of God was second to none.
I love and miss you daily and will never forget your chant "Thank you Jesus, Thank you Lord ".
Rest well in the bosom of the Lord.

TRIBUTE TO MY MOTHER - 70 YEARS

My Mother. My First Love. My Forever Hero. At 70, you have closed your eyes here on earth, but you opened them in glory. Mum, how do I write a tribute for the woman who gave me everything? You gave me life, you gave me love, you gave me your prayers when I had none. You worked when you were tired, you smiled when you were in pain, you held this family together with your faith and your bare hands. You were a virtuous woman. A prayer warrior. A giver, even when you had little. You never ate alone; your pot was for everybody. You never kept malice; your heart was too clean for it. You taught me how to be strong without being hard. How to forgive. How to hustle. How to trust God even when things are not making sense. 70 years was not enough for us, Mum. We wanted more birthdays, more laughter, more of your food, more of your advice. But God, who gave you to us, knows best. Today I don't just cry because you are gone, I thank God because you were here. Because I got to call you Mummy. Your voice may be silent, but your love will shout in this family forever.

Rest well, Mum. Rest in perfect peace.
I will make you proud wherever you are.

I love you forever.
Your Baby Girl...

INLAWS

FAREWELL TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED MOTHER-IN-LAW, DCN. HELEN A. IYEKOWA
It is with a heart full of gratitude to God, yet deeply saddened by your passing, that I write this farewell tribute to you, my beloved mother-in-law, Mummy Helen A. Iyekowa.
Mummy, words are not enough to express the depth of our sorrow at your departure. Your passing has created a great emptiness in our family, and we will greatly miss your presence, your kindness, your wisdom, your prayers, and the warmth you brought into our lives. You were more than a mother-in-law to me. You were a mother, a counsellor, a source of encouragement, and a woman whose life touched many people. I am grateful to God for the privilege of knowing you and for the beautiful memories you have left behind. Your love for your family was evident in the way you cared, advised, encouraged, and prayed for us. You carried the family in your heart and continually desired the peace, unity, and progress of everyone around you.
Though your earthly journey has come to an end, your legacy will continue to live in your children, grandchildren, family, and all those whose lives you touched. The values you taught, the sacrifices you made, and the love you shared will never be forgotten.
The Bible says in 2 Timothy 4:7: “I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.”
Mummy, you have finished your earthly course. We may mourn your departure, but we also thank God for the life you lived and the legacy you left behind. Your absence will be deeply felt at family gatherings, in our conversations, and in the many moments when we would have loved to hear your voice and receive your counsel. But we will hold on to the memories and cherish every moment God gave us with you.
Rest peacefully, dear Mummy. Your work here is done. We commit you into the loving hands of the God whom you served and trusted.
Goodbye, Mummy Helen A. Iyekowa.
You came, you loved, you served, and you left a lasting imprint on our hearts.
Rest in peace until we meet again at the feet of Jesus. With love, gratitude, and fond memories.
PASTOR. DICKSON C. CHIADIKA – SON IN-LAW

TO THE BEST AND SELFLESS MOTHER-IN-LAW❤
Mama... I don't have enough words to express how grateful I am for everything you did for everyone, including me. You were truly a rare and precious mother.
Your passing to glory came as a great shock to me. Though my heart is heavy, I trust that God Almighty knows best. Thank you for your love, kindness, sacrifices, and the beautiful memories you left behind. Your love, your warming personality. Your ways of hard work and the discipline to see things through. Your keen eye of genuine care and to a unifier and peacemaker. A true icon of Trust, integrity and Loving care. You will surely be missed. Rest on, mummy Helen Iyekowa in the bosom of the Lord. You will forever be loved, remembered, and cherished by every memory we had with you. Rest peacefully, Mama. MR NELSON UNUANE - SON-IN-LAW

A TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED MOTHER-IN-LAW
Today, I remember and celebrate a remarkable woman whose life touched so many people, including me. Losing you has left a deep emptiness in our hearts, but the beautiful memories you left behind will forever remain with us. You were more than a mother-in-law to me. You were a mother, a source of wisdom, kindness, strength, and love. Your warmth and the way you cared for your family made you truly special. I will always be grateful for the love and acceptance you showed me. Though it is painful to know that you are no longer with us, I take comfort in knowing that your legacy lives on through your children, grandchildren, and everyone whose life you touched. Your values, your words, your kindness, and your love will continue to guide us. Thank you for the memories, the lessons, the love, and the moments we shared. You may be gone from our sight, but you will never be forgotten.
Your place in our hearts is eternal. Rest peacefully, dear Mum. You lived a life that mattered, and your memory will forever be a blessing to us. May your beautiful soul rest in perfect peace. Amen MR AKEEM ADEOLA - SON-IN-LAW

A TRIBUTE TO MY MOTHER IN-LAW
It is a blessing to have a good mother, but it is a double blessing to have a good godly mother-in-law. Mama, you were not just my mother-in-law, you were my second mother. From the very first day you welcomed me into your family, you welcomed me with open arms, with a smile that said, "you are one of us." You were a godly woman. Your life preached a sermon without words. I watched you pray early in the morning, serve without complaining, forgive quickly, and love and feed everyone unconditionally. Your faith was strong, your heart was pure, and your wisdom guided this family through many seasons. You were so good.

Good in your words — you never spoke evil of anyone. Good in your actions — always giving, always caring, always checking up on us.
Good in your spirit — there were peace wherever you were. Thank you, Mama, for raising such a wonderful son who became my husband. Thank you for not interfering but always interceding.
Thank you for your prayers that we may never have heard but always felt. Thank you for your advice that has always seasoned with love, not judgment.
Thank you for loving me as your own daughter.
We will miss your smile, your food, your prayers, your presence. But we are comforted because we know you are in a better place. We love you Grandma we will never forget your love and selfless service Rest in peace till we meet again. MRS. JENNIFER IMUETINYAN IYEKOWA – Daughter-in-law

TRIBUTE WITH A GREAT JOY
Just like the leaves falling from the tree and gently blown away by the wind, carried to a place unknown, you slipped away so subtlety with the gentle morning breeze, if only i could catch the wind am sure to have gotten hold of you but holding the wind is impossible. You fought hard, but just like a mirage, you kept fading until i couldn't get a hold of you. With tears in my eyes, i write this tribute to you mummy but with great joy in my heart because i know you are in a better place. I was already getting my pen to write a poem to a woman that stole my heart from the first day i met you, every now and then i would pause and say, is she really real? You were so good to be true, but as seconds turned into minutes, minutes into hours, hours into days, days into weeks and weeks turned to months and months gradually transcend into years, I soon discovered you were an angel in human form. You were my answered prayers for a Godly mother-in-law You were so much more than i prayed for.
A virtuous woman to the call, a prayer warrior, peaceful soul, a giver, selfless, Sometimes, i wonder if you ever had time to pray for yourself. You will always put others first, not caring about yourself. Hmmm, I remember I would jokingly say if am to pick a family, I'll pick yours over and over again, and if am to choose a mother-in-law, I won't think twice before making you my choice, you are a rare gem fashioned with grace.
A woman full of faith and love. Your warm smile, your gentle talk, your words of wisdom still fresh in my memory. Am grateful to God our path crossed, you've been an amazing mother, friend, partner, encourager, words are not enough to describe your personality. An angel personified. It's painful, though, but i guess the angels really pleaded with God to allow you to celebrate your birthday with them because heaven have been missing AN ANGEL 😇 Thank you for raising nations and generations who will forever call you blessed and will continue to remember your beautiful legacy that will forever live on. I salute you, Mama, Mother of all, grandma of all grandma's, God's general, heaven's ambassador. Keep sleeping, it's just for a while😇
Forever in our hearts 💕 💕 ♥ Esosa Peace IYEKOWA (Daughter-in-Law)

I COULD NEVER HAVE WISHED FOR A BETTER MOTHER-IN-LAW.
With you, it was never a dull moment. I will always cherish our little chats, the way you could make even the most difficult situations seem like nothing, the sweet pet names you had for everyone, and, of course, your wonderful meals.

You laughed so freely and lived with so much hope and joy. You were so full of life, and that is why your death has come as such a shock to me. Even now, I still find it difficult to wrap my head around it. I cannot seem to reconcile this stillness and silence with the vibrance, warmth, laughter and life that I had known and grown so accustomed to over all these years.

It is hard to imagine that the voice I was so used to hearing is now silent, and that the laughter that filled so many moments is no longer there. Your presence brought warmth wherever you went, and your memory will forever remain a beautiful part of our lives. Thank you for being more than just a mother-in-law. Thank you for being a loving, joyful and unforgettable presence in my life. You will be deeply missed, but the love, laughter and beautiful memories you left behind will remain with me always.Rest peacefully Grandma. OSAIGBOVO IYEKOWA (Daughter -in-law)

TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED BIG MUMMY, MRS HELEN IYEKOWA 🤍

It is difficult to say goodbye to a woman who gave so much of herself to her family. After the loss of her husband, she became a pillar of strength for her six children. Despite the challenges she faced, she made sure they never went hungry, ensured they received an education, and raised them with good morals, discipline, and the fear of God. She was a woman of prayer, hard work, cleanliness, punctuality, and discipline. She did not tolerate laziness, and whenever you were wrong, she would correct you—not out of anger, but because she wanted you to become a better person. She loved children deeply, and although she was my stepmother, she was truly a mother in every sense of the word. Her love was shown through her sacrifices, her guidance, her prayers, and the many things she did for her family. BIG MUMMY, your sacrifices may never be fully repaid, but your legacy will live on through the children you raised and the lives you touched. Thank you for your love. Thank you for your prayers. Thank you for your sacrifices. Thank you for being a mother. You may be gone from our sight, but you will forever remain in our hearts and memories. Rest peacefully, BIG MUMMY. You will never be forgotten. IYEKOWA NOSAKHARE MARVIN

TRIBUTE TO MRS. HELEN IYEKOWA, "GRANDMA"

Our dear Mummy, Mrs. Helen Iyekowa. You were our home, our peace, and our strength. You raised 11 children with so much love. Your love was equal, your food was always enough, and your heart was always open. You taught us to be strong and kind. You prayed for us, cared for us when we were sick, and believed in us always.
You gave everything so we could be who we are today. On Sept 11, 2026, we lost our queen, but your love will never leave us. From your all of us we love you forever. Rest in peace, Mama. OMOEFE IYEKOWA 🤍🇨🇦 - Son

REST WELL, GRANDMA. 🤍🤌

It still feels so unreal that you're no longer here. One thing I will always remember is how you prayed for me whenever you saw me. Those prayers meant more to me than I probably ever said. It was truly an honour to work side by side with you. Thank you for teaching me everything I know, for your guidance, and for the memories we created together. You were a joyful soul, and I'll always remember your smile and the joy you carried, regardless of what you faced. I'm grateful I got to call you Ma. I will miss you dearly. Rest peacefully. 🤍 PATIENCE IYEKOWA – Daughter

She did not tolerate laziness, and whenever you were wrong, she would correct you—not out of anger, but because she wanted you to become a better person. She loved children deeply, and although she was my stepmother, she was truly a mother in every sense of the word. Her love was shown through her sacrifices, her guidance, her prayers, and the many things she did for her family. BIG MUMMY, your sacrifices may never be fully repaid, but your legacy will live on through the children you raised and the lives you touched. Thank you for your love. Thank you for your prayers. Thank you for your sacrifices. Thank you for being a mother. You may be gone from our sight, but you will forever remain in our hearts and memories. Rest peacefully, BIG MUMMY. You will never be forgotten AGBONIFO PETER IYEKOWA - Son

You were more than a grandmother to us, you were a leader. You led our family with wisdom, strength, and love. You knew how to bring everyone together, how to settle quarrels, and how to guide us in the right direction. Your words carried weight because they came from a heart that truly cared. And who can forget your food? Your cooking was like no other. It wasn't just delicious; it was made with love. Every meal from your kitchen felt like a warm hug. We will miss gathering around to taste your wonderful dishes. You were a woman of deep faith. A true Christian. You prayed a lot, not just for yourself, but for all of us. You prayed in the morning, in the night, and in between. Your prayers have carried this family through so much, and we believe they will continue to protect us even now that you're gone. Grandma, your legacy lives on in us. In our faith, in our love for one another, and in the values, you taught us.
Rest well in the bosom of the Lord, till we meet again. We love you, and we will never forget you.

TRIBUTE TO OUR GRANDMA

Our dear Grandma,
Grandma would always pray for us with so much love. Grandma would always cook the best food for us on every occasion, and she would always give us even without us asking. She would always pray for me and my siblings before we leave for the hostel. Anytime she is not at home, I am at peace because I know she is always praying for me and for everyone else. When my parents are not around, she is always there for us, to take care of us and make sure we are okay. When I go downstairs to play ball, she comes outside her room to watch me play because she is always there for us. When Janelle needs someone to feed her and play with her, Grandma is always there for her. Grandma would always want me to be the best, so she can be proud of me. Grandma would always teach us our language so we can learn to speak and understand it. Grandma has taught me to be a better and more prayerful person. Grandma would always try her best to be kind and make sure everyone is happy.
Grandma was always happy when she saw everyone around in the house. We love you, Grandma. Thank you for everything. JOEL IYEKOWA – Grandson

TRIBUTE TO MY GRANDMA

Mrs. Helen Iyekowa was a wonderful mother, grandmother, friend, teacher, doctor, and the rest. She will forever be missed, loved, and remembered. I remember all those times that she would teach us how to speak in our language, she would cook for us on every occasion, even when we asked and when we didn't. she would come to the hostel and greet me and my friends. she would bring food and snacks all the way for me and my friends. she would tell us to "focus on our books" before we leave for hostel. Anytime we came downstairs to play with her. we planned our future together. she would take her time to buy the things we like. And when she woke up every day to pray for us. She was a lovely person and this wasn't meant for her. I thought we would have a longer time together because I didn't know what was ahead of us. She always cared for us when our parents went out, when we had family events, when we were hungry, when we were sad, and even when we were happy. She taught me a lot of things in my life. She taught us how to love, care, greet, respect others, read, pray, and even to sing in our language. This was a very devastating thing, but I know it wasn't your fault. I know you wanted to wait, and I know you didn't want to die yet, but you weren't scared because you had God by your side. Thank you for everything you have done for me, my parents, my siblings, my cousins, my uncles and aunties, and for everyone. We all will miss you, and I really need you right now and want to stay by your side, but I can't. I know you are watching over all of us, and I will follow your footsteps to be a better person.
May you rest in perfect peace in Jesus' name.. [Amen] I am really sad about this loss, but I will never, ever forget you and will always love you OGHOGHO JOY IYEKOWA – Grand Daughter

TRIBUTE TO MY GRANDMA

Grandma was a lovely person. She was always there for me, even when she was doing something important. I love the food she makes; it is very sweet and nice. The Jollof rice and salad are the best, and the milk is the best. Anytime she comes to my school, she always says hi to me and my friends. She is a very kind and sweet, prayerful person. If she was not there for me, I would not have learned to pray, to be kind, and to make some good. Anytime my parents are not around, she takes care of us very well, and she taught me that a kind person will always have special people with her. She always cares for me, like when I dislocated my left hand, she always asked how I was feeling and if it was better. There was no day that Grandma did not ask how I was feeling. Anytime I was feeling sad or angry, she would ask why I was angry or sad, and she would comfort me and cheer me up. I wish she never died. She was so kind, always happy, prayerful, and gentle with people. I love Grandma so much and I will remember her forever and ever JEREMY IYEKOWA – Grandson

TRIBUTE TO MY GRANDMA

My grandma is the best. I love my grandma very, very much. She gives me big hugs and she smiles at me. Her food is yummy. I like her rice more but sometimes she makes me eat soup and swallow. She always gives me snacks even when I don't ask. She prays for me always She tells me Jesus loves me. When I am sad, she hugs me and makes me happy again. When I play, she watches me and claps for me. She always cooks yummy jollof rice and chicken on my birthday. I miss you, Grandma.

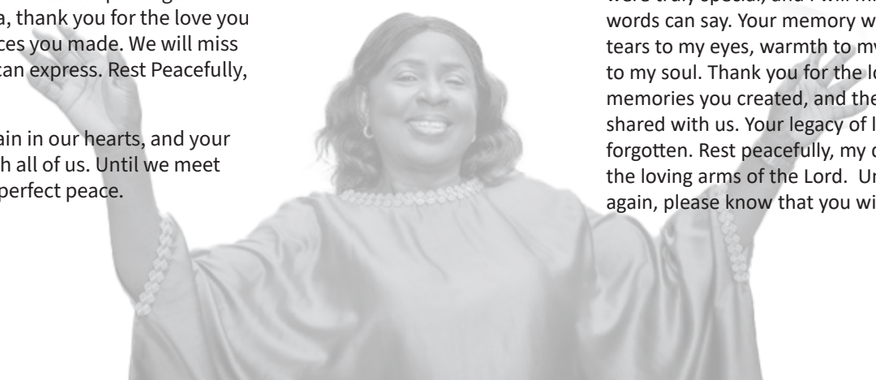

I love you to the moon and back. Sleep well, Grandma. I will always love you. JANELLE IYEKOWA – Grand Daughter

A TRIBUTE TO MY GRANDMOTHER 💚
Grandma, I still find it hard to believe that you are no longer here with us. There are so many things I will miss about you, but one thing that will always stay in my heart is the way you cared for everyone around you. I will never forget how you used to call me every Wednesday just to pray for me. Those calls meant so much more than I probably ever told you. Hearing your voice, receiving your prayers, and knowing that you were thinking about me made me feel loved and protected. I will miss those Wednesday calls more than words can explain. Grandma, you always put other people before yourself. You cared about everyone, always checking on people and making sure they were okay. You had such a gentle heart. I hardly ever saw you get angry because your heart was always focused on bringing peace and happiness to the people around you. You were the kind of person who wanted everyone to be happy, even when it meant putting your own needs aside. Your love was genuine, your kindness was unforgettable, and your prayers were a blessing to our family. Although you are no longer physically with us, everything you taught us and every prayer you prayed for us will continue to live on. Your love will remain in our hearts, and your memory will never fade. And grandma you know we had a deal that I'll drive you to your birthday party but you did not meet that deal grandma. I love you, Grandma. Thank you for loving me, praying for me, and always putting people first. Rest peacefully, Grandma. 💚 You will forever be loved, remembered, and missed. DANIEL OSAYAME CHIADIKA – GrandsoN

HAPPY BIRTHDAY IN HEAVEN, GRANDMA 🤍
Today, I celebrate you and the beautiful life you lived. Your presence in our lives was truly a blessing, and I will forever be grateful that God gave me the privilege of having you as my grandmother. You loved us no matter what and treated us like we were your whole world. Your love was so genuine, and there will never be another person who can take your place. I will always remember how you wanted to support my business and how happy you were about the things I wanted to achieve. I'll also always remember the ice cream date you promised me that we never got to attend. I wish we had gotten the chance to go together. These little memories mean so much to me now. Grandma, nobody will ever call me the way you used to. Nobody will ever say my name quite like you did. I miss your voice, your love, your presence, and everything about you. I miss you more than I can properly explain. You served God diligently, and I pray that all the love, prayers, and goodness you gave to others will continue to speak for you. You made such a great impact in my life, and I hope that one day I can make you proud and even outlive the beautiful legacy you left behind. I'm genuinely sorry for all my mistakes, Grandma. If there was ever a time I hurt you, disappointed you, or did anything I shouldn't have, I hope your spirit forgives me. I wish I had more time with you, but I will cherish every moment I was blessed to have. You will always be my guardian angel, watching over me and guiding me. I will always love you, and no matter how much time passes, I will never stop missing you. Happy birthday, Grandma. I love you dearly, and I miss you more than words can ever say. 🤍💚 Forever your first granddaughter, GRACIE MAMA OSASENAGA CHIADIKA – Grand daughter

Today I come with a heavy heart to say goodbye to a woman who meant so much to me. It is difficult to find the right words to describe the pain of losing my grandmother, because she was not simply my grandmother, she was a source of love, wisdom, comfort, and strength. Grandma, you gave us so many beautiful memories that we will carry with us for the rest of our lives. Your kindness, your laughter, and the way you cared will never be forgotten. I will always be grateful for the moments I shared with you. Even the simplest memories have become precious to me now. Your lessons will always remain with me, and I hope to carry them forward in a way that would make you proud.
Although saying goodbye is painful, I fine comfort in knowing that your life touched so many people. Your love did not end with your passing. It lives on with your children, your grandchildren, your family, and everyone who had the privilege of knowing you. Grandma, thank you for the love you gave us and the sacrifices you made. We will miss you more than words can express. Rest Peacefully, Grandmother.

Your memory will remain in our hearts, and your love will live on through all of us. Until we meet again, may you rest in perfect peace.

A Life well Spent

DAVID NOSAKHARE CHIADIKA - Grandson

MY DEAR GRANDMA
I will miss you. You promised me that you and me would go out but you are not here anymore. Grandma the house feels silent without you in it, cause you where the one who told us what to do. I remember when you will cook such a big meal and share to the entire street because you where such a nice person. I knew it would happen but just couldn't believe it because you did so many good things that couldn't make us know, but it's God's decision. Grandma, you where always there for me, you will give me something even though you needed it more you still gave it to me, you thought because I was younger, u prayed for everyone of us you did all that knowing that there is no one else that will pray for us like that. You called me that one name Midora. Grandma I know you will always be my guardian angel from heaven, I know you are not here to watch me get married, graduate, give birth to my own children but I know you are watching me from heaven. Thank you for loving me, taking care of me, you will always be in my heart. I love you my dear grandma FAITHFUL OSAWONAME CHIADIKA – Grand daughter

TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR GRANDMA
My Dear Grandma,
There are no words deep enough to express how much you meant to me and how deeply your passing has touched my heart. Your love, kindness, sacrifice, warmth, and gentle presence were precious gifts that I will forever be grateful for.
I cherish every moment I shared with you—the memories, the laughter, the love, and even the quiet moments that may have seemed ordinary at the time but now mean everything to me. You left beautiful footprints in my life, and those memories will remain in my heart forever. Though you are no longer here for me to hold, hear your voice, or see your beautiful smile, I find comfort in knowing that the love you gave me can never be taken away. A part of you will always live within me. Grandma, you were truly special, and I will miss you more than words can say. Your memory will continue to bring tears to my eyes, warmth to my heart, and gratitude to my soul. Thank you for the love you gave, the memories you created, and the beautiful life you shared with us. Your legacy of love will never be forgotten. Rest peacefully, my dear Grandma, in the loving arms of the Lord. Until the day we meet again, please know that you will always be loved, forever remembered, and deeply missed. You may be gone from our sight, but you will never be gone from our hearts. 💚 DEVINE UNUANE - GRANDSON

Grandma, i missed you, i just want you to be well and come back. Eghosa IYEKOWA (Grand son)

Grandma, i missed you and missed your cooking, i know you are in a better place. Eloghosa IYEKOWA (Grand daughter)

Grandma, i missed your cooking and when you always come to our house and pass the nights, may your soul rest in peace because i know you are in a better place, i will miss you always. Aimuaemwonosa IYEKOWA (Grand daughter)

TRIBUTE TO MY GRANDMOTHER
At 70 years, you lived a life full of love, strength, and grace. Grandma, you were not just old, you were gold. Your hands worked hard, your words healed, and your smile made home feel like home. You taught us how to cook with patience, how to pray with faith, how to love without condition, and how to forgive even when it hurts. You were our gist partner, our prayer warrior, our adviser, our safe place. You remembered everyone's birthday, you never let anyone leave your house hungry, and you could turn a small story into a big lesson. 70 years was not long enough for us, but heaven knows you finished your assignment well. You planted love in all of us, and that love will keep growing even though you are gone. We will miss your voice, your laugh, your food, your wrappers, your knock on the door. But we will not miss your legacy, because it lives in us.
Rest well, Grandma. Rest in the bosom of the Lord, till we meet again. We love you forever 💚🤍ADEOLA ELIZABETH ur dear grandchild

IN LOVING MEMORY OF GRANDMA — 70YEARS WELL LIVED
If love could keep you here, you would live forever. At 70, you left us too soon, but you left us full. Full of memories. Full of lessons. Full of the kind of love that doesn't expire. You were a mother to many, a grandmother to all, a friend to everyone who met you. You had that special way of making everybody feel like they were your favourite. Your house was never empty — there was always food on the fire, gist in the Parlor, and prayer in the morning. You taught us that family is everything, God is first, and kindness should be our daily uniform. You didn't just grow old, you grew in wisdom, in grace, in strength.

At 70, you were still advising us, still praying for us, still checking if we had eaten. Now your chair is empty, but your voice will never leave this house. We will miss your calls, your jokes, your scolding, your hugs that felt like healing.
Thank you for 70 years of a life well spent. Thank you for loving us so well.
Sleep well, Grandma.Rest well, our queen.
Your love will outlive us all.
We love you, forever and ever. ADEOLA RACHEL, RAYMOND AND RICHARD – Grand children

I miss my favourite grandma; I miss the gift she always buys for me. Grandma I love you.
May your soul Rest in Peace. PRAISE IYEKOWA - Grandson

"WHAT WE HAVE ONCE ENJOYED WE CAN NEVER LOSE. ALL THAT WE LOVE DEEPLY BECOMES A PART OF US"
Grandma, the news of your passing still feels surreal because anywhere I turn, something always reminds me of you. From birth, you took care of me. I always looked for opportunities to be with you, laugh with you and gist about everything and anything. I learnt a lo from you. Saying "I love you, daughter" and me responding "Love you, Grandma" was something I yearned for whenever we spoke on the phone. I thank God, I hugged you as much as I could. Abigail misses you too. She has tried looking for you several times. She has tried going to your room to check. Since her birth, you have been there. The bond you both shared was always beautiful to watch and see. You walked in PURPOSE, you were disciplined and diligent in all you did. Always did things timely and made sure we did as well. Ah! My Grannma. Project Manager as I fondly called you when you start organizing (people and events). You touched hearts and lives. You who would unceremoniously shout "Thank you Jesus" and we would respond "Thank you Lord". You loved us and it was evident. Words can't express the depth of pain and emptiness we feel – God knows best, because he loves you, and He has called you into His eternal love.
Rest on our Sweet Mother. You are dearly missed.
MESSIAH & BLESSING ADIELA – Children

TRIBUTE TO A MOTHER WHO LOVED ME — DEACONESS HELEN IYEKOWA
From when my sister got married to your son in 2010, you also welcomed me into your home and your heart like your own daughter. You cared for me, fed me, supported me, and always made sure I never returned to school without food whenever I came visiting. When I was getting married in 2017, you single-handedly catered for my wedding without asking for a dime. When I had my children, you were always there, checking on me, caring for my children, praying for us, and even giving me the postpartum care I needed after my last baby was born. I will forever remember you for your prayers, your encouragement, your generosity, your words of advice and especially the way you called my name "Auntie Mercyyyyy," You were truly a mother to me, and your love will forever remain in my heart. My husband, my children, my family, and I will deeply miss you. We love you, but God loves you more. You have run your race and finished your course. May your beautiful soul rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord. Thank you for loving me like a daughter, I will never forget you Iyenogie. MERCY OSAYUWAMEN ODOBO-UHUNOMA

GRANDMA OF LAGOS!
A woman with a big heart. So generous, a true Strategist, an Organizer and Planner. You took cleanliness is next to Godliness personal. People say there's no place like home but you made my NYSC in Lagos feel like home - your care, your delicacies (especially your moi-moi), your check-ups, the Benin lessons, our gists and prayers. It's painful this is a farewell and not a birthday speech. I know you're with the angels singing Hallelujah and saying "Thank you Jesus." I love you so much Grandma, Your son, fondly called Iyekowa's last born. IGBINOSA OSAYUWAME (Yuyu) – Son

TRIBUTE TO GRANDMA
I loved you and will always love you, Grandma. You were one of a kind. The most graceful woman I knew. You were always there for everyone, and you gave food to the hungry. You gave peace of mind to the people who didn't have peace. You were humble. You always corrected me whenever I did something wrong, and I am studying hard because of you. I hope you are seeing me now. I have changed and I am studying hard because of you. I still remember the first day I injured myself and nobody was at home, so you helped me even when you were tired. When I heard you were sick, I prayed for you, Grandma. I just wish you had stayed. Your birthday is coming up soon and I was hoping you would celebrate it and relax, but God had other plans for us. I miss you so much, but I know you are in a better place. Although I miss you, and for the upbringing you always gave me, I still thank God. God knows the best thing to do.

I love you. Till we meet again. LIGHT SUNDAY

TRIBUTE TO GRANDMA
Grandma was very, very, very, very, very, very nice. I loved her cooking, especially her Jollof rice. She was very amazing and I loved her very, very, very, very, very, very much. She was the most wonderful woman I had ever seen. She is so amazing, I can't describe it in words. The grace, kindness, humbleness, and peace in her heart can't be described. I loved her very much and I am so happy she was my grandmother and I am her grandchild. LIFTED SUNDAY

TRIBUTE TO GRANDMA
Grandma, I don't even know where to start because there's so much, I want to say. You were my safe place. When the world felt too loud, you were my quiet. You always knew when something was wrong even when I said "I'm fine." Thank you for the prayers you prayed for me, for the food you made with love, and for teaching us how to be a strong, kind, God-fearing children You taught us to respect our elders, to pray even when it's hard, to love our family, and to never forget where we come from. I thought we'd have more time. I thought you'd see us-grow up, graduate, become everything you said we would be. It hurts so much that you're gone. But we promise you this, Grandma: we will make you proud. We will live the way you taught us. We will keep your memory alive in everything we do. We will love you forever. Rest in perfect peace SARAH AND BLESSING UGIAGBE

IGBINOSA CLAN

MY DEAREST, LOVING AND CARING SISTER
Mrs Helen Aimie-ikpomoyako IYEKOWA
The news of your home call was like a dream to me but it is real. You served God till your last days on earth; there is no doubt that you are resting in the bosom of your creator. You loved to share whatever you have with people around you. You were ready to inconvenience yourself to please people around you. My sister you lived a life of service unto God and humanity. I could recall many years ago, you sacrifice your secondary education for me your younger brother to have secondary education, you have the grace of giving, you have on several occasions ministered unto my needs. Many of our relations and those around you can testify to this. Beloved sister, rest in the bosom of the lord, until we see and to part no more on resurrection morning. From your younger brother. PST (DR) FRANCIS.O. IGBINOSA – Immediate younger brother

TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR SISTER
My dear sister, your death still feels like a dream, one I wish I could wake up from. It is difficult to accept that you are no longer with us. We will deeply miss your love, your care, your kindness, and the motherly way you approached every issue. You were more than a sister; you were a source of comfort, wisdom, and strength to us all. We love you dearly, Big Sister, but God loves you even more. Your departure has created a great vacuum in our hearts and in our family, a vacuum that only God can fill. Though our hearts are heavy with grief, we take comfort in the beautiful memories you left behind and the lives you touched with your love and kindness. Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord, dear sister. You will forever remain in our hearts, and your memory will live on in us. Rest on, Big Sister. Deaconess Helen Aimieikpomoyakor Iyekowa Nee Igbinosa - PASTOR DANIEL IGBINOSA – Younger brother

A TRIBUTE TO MY LOVING SISTER/ MOTHER
Words fail me as i write this tribute to my Dearest sister/ mother; Tears fill my eyes each moment i remember you are gone from this world. I remembered Friday 11th September, 2026 in the early hours that you passed on, i was in shock, i wailed as i could not comprehend what just happened as your demise was not what i was expecting to hear. You were my sweet and loving sister and you will forever be. Everyone in the Igbinosa family knows that the cord that binds us as sisters is a strong one. You were generous to all, God fearing and one who inconvenient herself to make others comfortable. I remembered when i came to Lagos for Omugwo was when we started the preparation for birthday, because you brought out pictures for us to select for the birthday, little

BIOGRAPHY OF LATE DEACONESS (MRS.) HELEN AIMIE-IKPOMOYAKO IYEKOWA (Nee IGBINOSUN)

Late Deaconess (Mrs.) Helen Aimie-Ikpomoyako IYEKOWA was born on the 10th day of October, 1956 into the family of Chief Igbinosun Ayiyi and Mrs. Idahosa Igbinosun Ayiyi in Edo State, Nigeria. She was a daughter of the soil, raised in love, discipline, and the fear of God.

She attended Iguedayi Primary School in 1967 and after the Nigeria Civil war she moved to Benin city and joined St. Peter Anglican Primary School, Iyaro Benin city between 1968 – 1974 Where she held and led series of cultural troupe. Upon finishing her Basic primary education, she worked firstly as creche teacher and later got employed in Pigossin Hotels where she worked in the restaurant between 1974 – 1977. Grandma had been known from her early years as a kind-hearted, respectful, and hardworking young woman who carried grace and warmth everywhere she went.

In a union ordained by God, she got married to her beloved husband, Mr. Paul Uriamose Iyekowa (Double Chief), in June, 1977 and moved down to Lagos, Aina street, Ojota to be precise where she had her first three kids and later to Seriki Aro in Ikeja having two of her children there and later down to Ojota – Niyi Ogunleye. The marriage was blessed with six biological children, five step children and many more children who called her mother by virtue of her accommodating and motherly heart. She was not just a mother to her own, but a mother to all.

She attended Anthonia Fashion homes where she graduated with OND in Fashion designing between 1992 – 1994, she practiced her seamstress for a while before venturing into her catering business (The MD / CEO) Unique Taste International where she had business transactions with a lot of firms like: MTN office Oregun, RCCG Doctor's retreat, Federal Airports Authority of Nigeria (FAAN) Christian fellowship, Stanbic IBTC Bank Allen Branch, New Life Gospel Mission Convention committee (2005 - 2025) and various personal jobs – weddings, Birthday, House warming, Naming ceremony, School graduation event (within and outside Lagos) to mention but a few. Mummy was the true definition of a virtuous woman. She was caring, loving, selfless, and ever ready to serve. Her doors were never shut, her pot was never empty, and her heart never tired of helping. She accommodated everyone with love, without discrimination, and gave without expecting anything in return.

Deaconess Helen was a devout Christian and a faithful member of New Life Gospel Mission, where she officially joined the church in the year 2004 and got baptised in Aug 2007 joining various group in church like Esther prayer band, holding various position in women group, Excellent group also and most recently a member of the reformed New Life Prayer Champion Team which she was an active member until her passing. she worshipped God with all her heart and lived out her Christian faith in her daily life, having coordinated the church cooking arm from 2005 – 2025 (20years) done numerous convention cooking, programs and her personal commitment to both the founder, current G.O and some other ministers of God. Her faith was not just in words, but in deeds — in her selflessness, her forgiveness, and her service to God and humanity, she can literarily go all the way out for you as one of her weaknesses is that she doesn't know how to say NO.

In year 2001 she moved in to the house her husband bought in 9, Musa Adewokun Ojota, (after staying the longest in a face me i face house for 17years - Emiloju) with her mate and the children, she was able to use love to win both the husband (before he left this world in June, 2006), second wife and children all to God and the union still exist among us all till date.

Deaconess Helen was a peacemaker, a counsellor, a giver, and a pillar of support to her family. She believed in unity, love, and hard work, and she instilled these values in all her children.

She will be remembered for her accommodating heart, her selfless service, her infectious smile, and her unconditional love that touched every life that came across her.

She transited to glory on 11th September, 2026 at the age of 70 years, after a life well spent in service to God and to humanity. She is survived by five siblings, six children, 5 step-children, a mate, Sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren, and numerous adopted children, relatives and well-wishers.

Mama, your love was selfless, your heart was pure, and your legacy lives on. You have fought a good fight; you have finished your course, you lived a fulfilled life. Rest in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ until we meet to part no more.

ADIEU,

MAMA HELEN AIMIE-IKPOMOYAKO IYEKOWA!

did i know you will not be alive on that day. Since you passed on i cried everyday because it is not what i was expecting but God almighty knows best and i put my consolation on Him. I remembered your scarifies for me that became a foundation to my academic achievement today. There was a day i was to go back to school and there was no money for me to go, she squeezed out transport fare to take me to school and not to bring me back home, as i was going to school i was crying, as i looked back I saw Great grand ma stood at the balcony of the house then crying, she later told me she was wondering how i was going to survive. But before the week ran off, she sent money through an opposite neighbour who was a lecturer at Ijanikin at that time. The memory of that day is still fresh in me. I can go on and on Amikpomoyako! You left me alone, God knows best. You were more than a elder sister to me, you nursed my daughter as you own till you passed on. You said my daughter was the first to call you GRAND MA that is why when she gave birth, you became GREAT GRAND MA. Uruese ka ka bo ma, in the way you touched me and those around you. Sleep well in the bossom of your maker till we will meet at the feet of Jesus. Vie ese iye ni iye, iye no kokomo. PST. GLADYS AJIBOLADE PHD – Younger sister

A TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED AUNT

Mummy, as we fondly called you, it still feels like a dream that you are gone. You were a loving, thoughtful and selfless soul who showed me so much love and kindness. Your warm smile, gentle nature and down-to-earth personality touched so many lives. I will always cherish the beautiful memories we shared and the love you gave so freely. You will be deeply missed, Mummy. Rest peacefully until we meet again, to part no more. FROM KATE EHIOGIE – Niece

MY SWEET MUMMY

My sweet mummy. My peace maker. She was that one person who carried everybody along. Always present in every family function and making everybody feel comfortable. I'll miss you so much. Rest in peace mummy MRS JOY EWEKA – NIECE

TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED AUNTY

Dear Aunty, Our big Mum, Iyenogie
It is still difficult to believe that you are no longer with us. Your passing has left a deep emptiness in our hearts that words cannot fully express. You were more than an aunty to us. You were a loving, caring, and wonderful person whose kindness and presence touched the lives of many. We will always cherish the memories we shared and the love you showed us. Though our heart is heavy with sadness, We are grateful for the time we had with you. Your memories will forever remain in my heart, and your love will never be forgotten. Rest peacefully, dear Aunty. You may be gone from our sight, but you will always remain in our hearts. Sleep well until we meet again. You will be deeply missed and forever loved. THE OMOROGBE FAMILY – Nieces & Nephew

TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR MUMMY

My dear Mummy Lagos, you were not just an aunty to me; you were also a mother. Your love, kindness, and sacrifices will forever remain in my heart. You held my hands at my mother's funeral and told me that you would always be there for my brother and me, and you kept your promise. I will forever cherish the memories we shared—the conversations, laughter, and your words of advice. Your life was an example of strength and love, and your legacy will continue to live on in your family and in everyone whose life you touched. Rest well, dear Mummy. I miss you deeply, and you will forever remain in my heart. EDOS AND OSARIEMEN – NEPHEW & NIECE

ONE MORE TIME MUMMY

The news of your death is a very shocking and sad one. Losing you is a pain that words can't explain. It still feels unreal that you are no longer here with us and sometimes I find myself wishing this was just a bad dream that I would wake up from.
I wish I could hug you one more time, hear your voice one more time, eat your food one more time, hear you laugh one more time, see you praise God and dance one more time. You were a beautiful presence in our lives, someone whose love, kindness and warmth will never be forgotten. But even though you are gone, the love you gave and the memories you left behind will continue to live on in our hearts. You're gone from our sights but never from our hearts, I'm happy heaven gained a soul. Until we meet again, may your beautiful and kind soul continue to rest in perfect peace. EWEKA ABIEMWENSE – Grand Daughter

WOMAN OF GRACE AND EFFULGENCE

Mrs Helen Iyekowa, fondly called mama Osaretin, was a woman of grace and effulgence. She loved people! She was selfless and kind. She loved education so much She ensured that all her children were duly educated.

Before she passed, all her children, though six, were all mandatorily educated. That was a positive legacy. With respect to her spirituality, she was a devoted Christian. Since the time she knew Christ to the time of her passage, she served the Lord faithfully to the best of her knowledge. Though she did not preach to people in Greek and Hebrew, yet she preached to people with her good christian character, making it possible for many to come to know Jesus Christ through her lifestyle. Finally, it's worthy to note that, she never played with any family functions. She was always there for family matters, shuttling between Lagos and Benin City as the case may be. She has left an indelible legacy behind for all of us to emulate. We will really miss her. I pray that God will grant her eternal rest. Peace!! MATTHEW IYEKOSA – Brother In-Law

TRIBUTE TO MY LOVELY SISTER

My dear sister, you were not only my uncle's wife; you were a true sister to me. You were loving, kind, generous and always willing to help. When I came to Lagos to work, I had the opportunity to stay with you. Throughout my time in Lagos, you were there for me. Even when my uncle Paul was away, you ensured that the children and everyone staying with you lacked nothing. You also stood faithfully by me during the important moments of my life. At the weddings of my eldest daughter and my son, you were my right hand, making sure everything was properly done. During my mother's burial, you were there again, supporting me and ensuring that everything went well. I cannot put all your good deeds on paper. You were exceptionally kind and loving, and your absence will be deeply felt. My lovely sister, you were simply too good to be forgotten. May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. MRS AGNES ERO (MAMA OSAYI) – YOUR LOVELY SISTER

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY UNCLE'S WIFE…

Some people walk into a room and instantly bring peace, and that was her. She was a rare soul—exceptionally gentle, deeply humble, and incapable of looking down on anyone. She opened her arms to everyone she met, embracing people with a heart so big and pure that you couldn't help but feel safe around her.
Her love knew no bounds, especially when it came to her children. She adored them, and they naturally gravitated toward her warmth. But above all, she was the anchor of uncle Paul's family. She was always present, deeply involved, and constantly working to draw them closer together. She was the unifier, the gentle thread that held them all as one. I will forever miss hearing her call me "Odomwenuwa." Every time she spoke that name, it carried the full weight of her love, her pride, and her tender affection. Though her absence leaves a void that can never be filled, her spirit of love, unity, and gentle grace will live on in every life she touched. Rest well in eternal peace. You will forever remain in our hearts. PASTOR (MRS) ULAMEN MARGARET IKHAREBHA – Sister-in-law

MAMA OSARETIN – THE KIND, WARM AND CARING

I will always remember Mama Osaretin for how kind, warm and caring she was. Growing up, I honestly cannot remember ever hearing a bad word said about her. Whenever my mum or anyone in the family spoke about her, it was always with love and respect. When I travelled to Nigeria to bury my mum, I was travelling alone and, naturally, I felt a little apprehensive. But from the moment she and her daughter came to the airport to pick me up, they made me feel so welcome and comfortable. By the time I got to the house, I no longer felt nervous. That is the kind of person she was; she had a way of making you feel at ease. We kept in touch after I returned to London, and she would occasionally call and message me, which I will always cherish. It is so sad to know that she is no longer with us, especially knowing that the family was looking forward to celebrating her birthday next month. I'm grateful that I got to see her one more time and that I have such lovely memories of her.May her beautiful soul rest in perfect peace. She will be greatly missed

MY FAREWELL TO MUMMY
Rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord, Big Mummy. You are gone from our sight, but you will never, ever leave our hearts. Adieu, Big Mummy. Sleep well

TRIBUTE TO MY BELOVED AUNT
Deaconess Helen A. Iyekowa
My dear Aunt, your passing has left a huge gap You were more than an aunt to me. You were a mother, a protector, a helper and a constant source of love and support. When I first came to Lagos, you opened your home to me. You gave me a place to stay and ensured that I was safe, comfortable and stable. You cared for me wholeheartedly and never made me feel like a burden. When I gave birth to each of my three children, you were there for me. You lovingly bathed every one of them and cared for us with such tenderness. These are precious memories that I will carry in my heart forever. Whenever we needed anything, you made yourself available. You were selfless, dependable and always willing to help. You had a pure heart and genuinely cared about keeping the family together. Your love was not merely spoken; it was expressed through your sacrifices, your presence and everything you did for us. Thank you for opening your heart and your home to me. Thank you for standing by me through important seasons of my life. Thank you for loving my children and for giving so much of yourself to our family. I will miss you deeply, but I will remain forever grateful for the privilege of having you in my life. Your kindness, generosity and beautiful legacy will never be forgotten.
Rest peacefully, my beloved Aunt. You were truly loved, and you will remain forever in my heart.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ONE OF GOD'S MOST PRECIOUS GIFTS TO HUMANITY: ÍYÉ OSAETIN
It was with a heavy heart that I received the shocking news of the passing of one I will always refer to as ÍYÉ. In truth, she was a mother and more to me, especially during the early stages of my life. She was a great counsellor, full of wisdom and a depth of patience so unique that I don't think anyone else could ever possess her kind of patience. She welcomed me with open arms each time I visited their house back then. You could never leave her home without her cooking for you: it was a rule that you must eat whenever you visited Íyé Osaetin's house! This was one of those beautiful gestures that always made me excited whenever my father sent me on an errand to their home. Her kindness was constant, her words were always full of wisdom, and her house was always a home. Her wisdom was truly exceptional; I will never forget how she mediated between my father and me at a time when things were really rough between us. I will truly miss her. I will miss her charming, welcoming, signature smile, and I will miss how she always affectionately called me "Ódó vbén nuwá." Though you are gone, your love remains with us. Rest well, ÍYÉ OSAETÍN. You will be deeply missed, but your legacy of love lives on forever.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. HELEN AIMIENIKPOMOYAKO IYEKOWA — "BIG MUMMY"
The passing of Mrs. Helen Aimienikpomoyako Iyekowa, fondly known as "Big Mummy," is a great loss to our family and to everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. She was my mother-in-law, the mother of my kid sister's husband, but she was much more than a relation—she was a woman whose warmth, kindness, and presence touched many lives.
Big Mummy was a true definition of a virtuous woman—strong, loving, industrious, and full of wisdom. As an industrialist and a multitalented woman, she was hardworking, creative, and determined, always putting her gifts and abilities to meaningful use. Her life was a beautiful example of perseverance, service, and dedication to family.
She was loved by all because she gave love freely. Her generosity, compassion, and welcoming spirit made people feel valued and at home in her presence. Though she battled an ailment before her passing, we choose to remember her not by her illness, but by the remarkable life she lived and the lasting impact she made.
Big Mummy, your departure has left a void that words cannot fill. We are, however, grateful for the privilege of knowing you and for the memories you have left with us. Rest peacefully, Big Mummy. Your love, strength, and legacy will remain forever in our hearts. You will be greatly missed, but never forgotten REV. DR. ABRAHAM EDOSOMWAN AND FAMILY – IN LAW

MOTHER WITH A HEART OF GOLD

A mother with a heart of gold. We are not so close to you as distance kept us from seeing day to day., but you made us feel your impact with your act of giving. Mother, we love you and miss you. THE FAMILY OF IROJE – IN LAW

A PERSONAL MEMORY OF MY BELOVED MUMMY
In the year 2001, when I met Mummy, I never knew that I was meeting someone who would become so important and special in my life. From that moment, she became much more than a mother to me. She was my supporter, my encourager, my comforter, my adviser, and my advocate. Over the years, she became someone I could always turn to. She listened to me, encouraged me when I needed strength, comforted me when I was hurting, and offered me advice whenever I needed direction. Her love and care made me feel that I was never alone. When I lost my biological mother in 2015, Mummy stood by me and my siblings in a way I will never forget. She came all the way from Lagos to be there for us. For seven days, she took charge of the kitchen and cared for us without complaint and without asking for anything in return. She simply wanted to be there for us during one of the most difficult moments of our lives. During that time, something beautiful happened. We became one family. Her presence, love, and selflessness brought comfort to all of us, and I will forever be grateful for the way she showed up for me and my siblings. Mummy, I don't think you ever truly knew how much all you did meant to me. Your love, your sacrifices, your encouragement, and your unwavering support touched my life in ways words can hardly express. Thank you for loving me. Thank you for standing by me. Thank you for being my mother, my supporter, my adviser, and my advocate. You will be missed more than words can say. Your place in my heart can never be replaced, and the memories of your love and kindness will remain with me forever. I will forever be grateful for you, Mummy.May you rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord. You will be missed so dearly MRS. ANTHONIA EHIMA – Family

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT INLAW
Though it may be hard to say goodbye and imagine that you are truly gone but there is an assurance that you are with our LORD and we'll surely see again in a better state at the Master's feet. Mommy, your love and selfless giving will be remembered, you gave your time and resources (even when it was so tight) to make everyone who stopped by at your house comfortable. I saw the genuine love you showed for your children and everyone connected to your family. Truly you were just a unique in-law with so many qualities that are worthy of emulation. Live on mama, we will surely meet again
MRS CHRISTABEL A. OBADIARU

DEAREST AUNTY
"Dearest aunty, losing you left a hole in our hearts that may never heal. You love sincerely as a mother regardless of whose child they are. Our tears can't bring you back!! However, I know where you are is much more better and beautiful than here…
We hope someday we shall meet again at Christ feet. In Loving memory of our dearly beloved mummy Helen Iyokowa forever. Rest well mama. "MERCY&CHARLES EGUASA

NEW LIFE GOSPEL MISSION FAMILY

TO A MOTHER WHO WILL ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED
We never thought we'll be writing a tribute this soon to you Grandma... Now, knowing what to write in just a few words is another story entirely
Words can't really qualify how valuable you were and have always been since knowing you. If we say you're humble, caring, hospitable, kind, loving, prayerful and selfless.... That has been said by virtually everyone, that goes to show the kind of person you are and it is the truth indeed
Your life is one that should be studied and truly celebrated. Do we talk about how you honour everyone around you regardless of their age? Do we talk about how selfless you are? How you always avail yourself to help in the ways that you can in the things of God and even in personal lives...
Knowing you and experiencing you Grandma, is something one can never forget. Even if you're no longer with us physically, we know that you are very present in our hearts. We love you Grandma and seeing you every other day is something we really miss. REV. ISAAC AJIBARE & FAMILY

TO A MAMA WHO WILL EVER LIVE ON IN OUR HEARTS!
What a life you lived; what grand steps you took; what great leaps you made! Grandma Helen Iyekowa – to us you were more than an angel; you were a part of heaven the earth witnessed in a small niche! No wonder, you went like a mystery, too! We won't cry; we will continue to thank God that the earth still has people the heaven is happy for. Your presence was proof that angels still tread on this earth.

You always called me “Daddy”, though we fought about it but you persisted. You still did even when we met after your demise. You always craved my small prayers – you loved me praying for you. Wow, what a blessing you were to the Church and the headquarters will ever miss you!
All you left behind shall thrive, multiply and gain wealth Mommy. When we finally see in heaven, we shall continue our dance till eternity! Adieu Mama, we love you is an understatement! REV. OLUTOBA & MIN. ABIMBOLA OSULOYE & FAMILY

TRIBUTE TO DEACONESS HELEN IYEKOWA
Today, we bow our heads not just in grief, but in deep gratitude for a life well spent.
Deaconess Helen Iyekowa is more than a name. You are a pillar - a committed mother, a dedicated servant of God, and your love held your family and everyone together. You are a selfless mother. You gave your all, not in loud words, but in daily sacrifices, in prayers whispered at midnight, and in love that never ran dry. You raised your children in the fear of the Lord and taught them what true strength, humility and resilience mean. As a Deaconess, you served with grace and unwavering faith. Your commitment to the work of God was unquestionable. You are dependable - a true soldier in the vineyard of the Lord. Your life is a sermon. Though you have gone to rest, your legacy lives on. We do not mourn as those without hope, for we know you have gone to be with your Maker, whom you served so diligently.Rest well, Mama. Rest well, Deaconess Helen Iyekowa. Your crown awaits you. You will forever remain in our hearts. Adieu! Deacon Mathew & Deaconess Josephine OTOHINOYI

ONE OF A KIND GRANDMA
Grandma was a one-of-a-kind woman. She was genuine, loving, patient, kind, and generous. I admired how she prayed; she would roll on the floor or tap her chest and stomach as she prayed, most likely for her children and grandchildren. Grandma was a very thankful woman. She was particularly gentle and sweet. I watched her care for her grandchildren so effortlessly. It was always a beautiful sight to behold.
I’ll miss helping her serve food to guests at events. I’ll miss hearing her testimonies. I’ll miss her so much. It still feels surreal, but Jehovah sees and Jehovah knows. May her soul continue to rest in peace Sis. Omolara ADEBOWALE

GRATITUDE TO GOD FOR A LIFE WELL SPENT
With gratitude to God for a life well lived, (Iye) as everybody fondly calls you, you a rare gem. Mummy your life is a legacy to many of us as individuals and as families. You are not a woman of many words but whenever there is disagreement between the group members, you will always say, make we do am like this and everything settles. I as a person, I have been missing your absence in the church. In your life time mummy, I am always overwhelmed whenever I looked at my back in the church and see you seated right behind me. Ma, you have left a vacuum that only God knows how to fill it, in the church, among your children and loved ones. Your departure, I believed is not accidental to our God because He is Omniscience. My joy is Heaven's witness about you and your place in eternity.
Rest on Ezinne till we meet to part no more Pastor Mathias & Pastor (Mrs.) Evelyne EJOOR

TRIBUTE TO A WOMAN WHO STOOD BY ME LIKE A MOTHER - DEACONESS HELEN IYEKOWA
It is with a deeply heavy heart that I pay this tribute to a remarkable woman who was far more than a friend to me and my family. She was a woman who stood by me like a mother, and whose love, kindness, generosity and hospitality will remain indelibly written in my heart. I came to know mummy Iyekowa about thirty years ago through her sister Mrs. Gladys Ajibolade. She took me just like her own child. Her passing is particularly painful because we were looking forward to celebrating her 70th birthday in October. It is difficult to understand that instead of gathering to celebrate seven decades of a life filled with love and service, we are now mourning her departure. Truly, life belongs to God, and His ways are beyond our understanding. I will forever be grateful for the special role she played in helping me acquire my property in Egor, Benin City. She did not merely assist me in acquiring the property; she went further to ensure that her family members in Benin City gave me and my family all the support we needed to develop it. She took my affairs as though they were her own. That was the kind of woman she was—selfless, dependable and genuinely interested in the wellbeing of others. She also stood firmly by my family during the burial of my father in Edo State in 2022. At a time when we needed the support, presence and encouragement of loved ones, she was there. Her concern was sincere, and her support brought comfort to us during a very difficult period. One of the qualities that particularly distinguished her was her spirit of hospitality. She had a generous heart and made people feel welcomed, valued and at home. Her home was a place where people could find warmth, care and kindness. She gave freely, not because she had to, but because giving and caring for others were simply part of who she was. As I reflect on her life, I realise that some people come into our lives and leave footprints that time can never erase. She was one of such people. Her impact on me and my family cannot be measured merely by the things she did for us, but by the love and sincerity with which she did them. To her children, grandchildren and her great-grandchild, I extend my deepest condolences. Your mother, grandmother and great-grandmother lived a life that touched many beyond her immediate family. You should be comforted by the knowledge that she was deeply loved, greatly appreciated and positively impacted the lives of many people. Mummy, I had looked forward to celebrating your 70th birthday with you in October. Sadly, God has chosen to call you home before that celebration. Though our hearts are broken, we are grateful to God for the beautiful life you lived and for the privilege of knowing you.

Thank you for standing by me like a mother. Thank you for standing by my family. Thank you for your generosity and hospitality. Thank you for the many lives you touched with your kindness. Your memory will remain a blessing to us, and the good you did will continue to speak long after you have departed Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord.
You lived as a mother to many; you will be remembered as a blessing to many more.
May God comfort your children, your grandchildren, your great-grandchild and the entire family, and grant them the strength to bear this irreparable loss.Adieu, Mama. Until we meet again at the feet of Jesus. Dr. PIUS O. EDOBOR & FAMILY

MAMA IYEKOWA
I met you divinely. I woke up one morning with a divine word that heaven has approved a blessing for your home. I fearlessly delivered it you. Despite how little i was, you believe me. You did not consider my age or infantry prophetic grace!
You CELEBRATE ministers. You pamper them! Your sense of honour is amazing!
I will really miss you ma. May the Lord comfort us and give you an eternal rest. GOOD NIGHT MA.

FROM MY HEART TO HER
In loving memory of a woman who was more than a mother to me. You loved without condition, guided without judgment, and held us with a strength I will never forget. Your voice was comfort, your prayers were a shield, your smile was home. Though you are gone, your love still lives in our heart. I see you in my kindness, hear you in my conscience, and feel you in every quiet moment. You are a true intercessor, a woman full of passion for Christ and ever tolerance. Thank you for mothering us. Thank you for loving us as your own.You will forever be in my heart. Rest well, Mama. REV. ADENIPEKUN KEHINDE

TRIBUTE TO MOMMY DEACONESS HELLEN IYEKOWA:
We are already missing you at the Ministers/Officers Sunday School class at the headquarters church. Your motherly experience you did share with us as your contribution to the teachings. Your hospitality, humility and respect to people who are even junior to you cannot be overemphasized. Continue to rest in the Lord till we meet and part no more PASTOR POPOOLA SUNDAY – Assistant General Overseer

WHAT A GREAT LOSS FOR ME, BUT A PRECIOUS GAIN FOR CHRIST
Hmmm… what a great loss for me, but a precious gain for Christ. 💔 I will miss those warm hugs you always gave me and the way you would whisper, “I love you, Uche.” Those words will forever remain in my heart. I miss you so much, Mummy. You were selfless, loving, caring, and full of warmth. I remember how I would always sleep on the bed with you at Ojota so I could make it to my PGDE classes. You never complained; you welcomed me every time with so much love.
You were always ready to pack extra food for me, even when I least expected it. Those little acts of kindness and love meant more to me than words can express. Mummy, I will miss you deeply. 😭💔
I had already opened the platform for your birthday because I was looking forward to celebrating you. I never imagined that the celebration would turn into a farewell. 💔 You were not only a great mother; you were also a wonderful mother-in-law to my friends and a blessing to everyone who encountered you. Thank you for your love, your warmth, your sacrifices, and the beautiful memories you left with us. A great loss to us, but a precious gain for Christ. Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord, Mummy. I love you, Mummy. 💚 ASSE UCHECHI – Daughter

A VIRTUOUS WOMAN OF GRACE, STRENGTH, AND IMMEASURABLE LOVE.
Words cannot fully express the void left in our hearts by your departure. You were a pillar; you loved without boundaries and sacrificed without complaint. Your home was a sanctuary. You taught us how to love unconditionally, and how to live with integrity. Though you are no longer here to comfort us with your warm embrace and plenty food, the values you instilled will live on. You ran your race graciously and won. Rest in perfect peace, dear Iye, until we meet to part no more DEACON ADENIPEKUN IDOWU

IN LOVING MEMORY OF IYE OSARETIN its like loosing a piece of my mother again. She's woman of wisdom, warmth and grace. A loyal friend to my late mother till the end, and a mother to me. Her kindness was a gift, her friendship was true, her legacy will remain. We will miss her smile, her stories and her strength. Adieu Iye Osaretin. May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. @LEXY OWARE

TRIBUTE TO A TRUE LEGEND
Mummy Iyekowa, fondly called IYE, you were truly a woman of love, kindness, and selflessness.
You were a woman who would inconvenience herself just to make sure everyone around you was comfortable and okay. Whenever you hugged you, the next thing you did was pray for you, ask about your family, and genuinely care about your wellbeing.I remember when I wanted to get married. Your house became my family house. It was used for my traditional wedding, and you welcomed everyone with open arms. You were so accommodating and always ready to serve, regardless of anyone's age or status.
Ever since I met you, I never heard that you had an issue with anyone. You lived a peaceful life and treated everyone with love and respect. You were a mother to many, and your home was a place where nobody could visit without being cared for. You could never allow anyone to leave your house hungry. You must eat, and you would still take something away! That was the kind of person you were—generous, caring, and full of love.
Mummy, my family has lost a mother. NLGM Church has lost a true general indeed. Your absence has created a vacuum that words cannot adequately describe.
We miss you deeply, Mummy, but we take comfort in knowing that you have gone to rest with your Maker. Though we mourn your departure, heaven has gained a beautiful soul.
Mummy IYE, your love, kindness, prayers, and memories will forever remain in our hearts.Rest peacefully, Mummy.Rest in perfect peace, IYE. You will never be forgotten.MICOM FAMILY

TRIBUTE TO A LOVING, CARING, HOSPITABLE, AND DOWN-TO-EARTH MOTHER "DEACONESS HELEN IYEKOWA"
"IYE", you were truly a rare gem—a loving mother, a caring soul, a hospitable woman, and a humble person. Your life was a blessing, your memory is a treasure, and your legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of everyone you touched.Rest on, dear Mother. You will be greatly missed, but you will never be forgotten. Your memory will forever remain blessed and cherished in our hearts.
Adieu for now, till we meet and part no more."Sun re ooo, mama oni nu re" REV'D DR IDRIS OLAIDE AND FAMILY

TRIBUTE TO MUMMY OSARETIN
My Mummy's Twin Sister, Some friends are just friends. But you, Mummy Osaretin, were my Mummy's twin sister. Growing up in Lagos, we never saw you as just Mummy's friend. You and my Mummy shared everything in common. Your joy was her joy, her pain was your pain. You were truly one heart in two bodies. You were a very, very godly woman. A mother indeed to all of us. A lover of children. You mothered us, prayed for us, and loved us like your own blood. Today we do not just cry, we thank God for your life. We thank God because everything you desired in this life, the Lord allowed you to see it with your own eyes before you left.
You have fought a good fight, Mummy Osaretin. You have finished well. Your twin sister, my Mummy, will forever cherish your memories. We, your children, will never forget you. Rest in perfect peace, Mummy Osaretin.Rest in the bosom of our Lord Jesus Christ till we meet to part no more. LILIAN & FAMILY – Daughter (On behalf of my Mother - Your Twin Sister)

TRIBUTE TO A WONDERFUL MOTHER
You were a truly kind and wonderful mother, whose love touched the lives of everyone around you. Your gentle heart, caring nature, and beautiful smile made people feel loved, valued, and welcomed.
You had a way of making others feel like family. I remember what i learnt from you as i was cooking this morning hummm, Your kindness was genuine, your words were comforting, and your love was freely given. I will always be grateful for the love and warmth you showed me and my family.
Though your passing has left a deep emptiness in our hearts, the beautiful memories you created will remain with us forever. Your legacy of love, kindness, and compassion will continue to live on in everyone who knew you.Rest peacefully, dear

Mother You were truly special, and you will always be remembered and deeply missed. Sis BISOLA ALEBURU – Daughter

TRIBUTE TO OUR BELOVED DEACONESS, HELEN IYEKOWA.
With deep sorrow, yet with gratitude to God for the life she lived, we remember and celebrate our beloved Deaconess, who has gone to be with the Lord. She was a faithful servant of God, a woman of prayer, love, humanity, and dedication. Her commitment to the work of God and her service to the church touched the lives of many. She was always willing to encourage, support, and care for others. Her presence among us brought joy and her words of wisdom and acts of kindness will remain in our hearts. Though her departure has created a gap in our church and in the lives of those who loved her, we are comforted by the assurance of God's word: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord... they rest from their labour." Revelations 14:13.
We thank God for the privilege of knowing her and for the legacy of faith, love ad service she left behind. Deaconess, you fought a good fight, you finished your race, and you kept the faith. Your memory will remain a blessing to us. Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord until we meet again.
Your life was a blessing, your memory is a treasure, and your service to God will never be forgotten. THE EXCELLENT GROUP (Mummy's group before her Demise)

MY DEAREST DEACONESS
My dearest Deaconess, saying goodbye to you breaks my heart, but I am endlessly grateful for the love and warmth you brought into my life.
You were so much more than an aunt to many of us, deaconess to the body of Christ—you were a guiding light, a safe space, and a constant source of kindness. Thank you for every warm hug, every piece of wisdom, and every cherished memory we shared. Your gentle spirit will live on in our hearts forever. Rest in peace."PASTOR KEHINDE ADEWUNMI

TRIBUTE TO DEACONESS HELEN A. IYEKOWA
There are some people who come into our lives and leave footprints so deep that time can never erase them. Deaconess Helen A. Iyekowa was one of those rare people.
Today, as we reflect on her life, our hearts are heavy with grief, yet full of gratitude for the privilege of knowing and loving such an extraordinary woman. "Iye" (Mother) as we fondly called her was kindness personified. Her heart was large enough to embrace not only her own family but many others, including ours. Though not related to us by blood, she was family in every sense that truly matters. She treated us with genuine love, care and concern.
Her friendship with our mother was one built on trust, loyalty and mutual respect. Her love extended beyond friendship; it embraced our entire family and touched each of us personally.
Her words were always gentle, her actions thoughtful and her doors open. She had a unique way of making people feel valued and welcomed. Whether through her prayers, wise counsel, encouragement or simple acts of kindness; she touched countless lives and left lasting impressions on every heart she encountered.
Her sudden departure has left a void that is difficult to describe. We still struggle to understand why someone so full of life, love and goodness had to leave so soon. What makes the pain even harder is knowing that today should have been a time of celebration as we marked another birthday with her. Instead, we are left holding on to cherished memories and wishing we had just a little more time.
Yet, even in our sorrow, we choose to celebrate the beautiful life she lived. We remember her generosity, her unwavering faith in God, her devotion to family and friends and the countless lives she touched through simple acts of kindness. She never needed a grand stage to make a difference; she changed lives simply by being herself.
Though your chair may be empty and your voice now silent, your legacy will forever live on - in the lives you impacted and in the memories we hold dear. We find comfort in knowing that she lived a life worthy of celebration and that she now rests peacefully in the presence of the Lord she faithfully served.
As a family, we will always remember you not with tears alone, but with gratitude for the gift of your life and the blessing of having known you.Sleep on, Iye Osaretin. Your kindness will never be forgotten. Your love will never fade. Your memory will forever live in our hearts. With love and gratitude. THE OMUGHELE FAMILY

MY TRIBUTE IN LOVING MEMORY OF DEACONESS HELEN IYEKOWA
You are one of a kind unique and accommodating you are kind hearted always looking at bringing the bright side to every interaction we ever had A mother in love and a ground mother I admire your deep-seated nature that breathes friendliness love and care I believe you are in a better place and your love for God and humanity transcends you live on. DEACONESS FAVOR AHMADU

A TRIBUTE TO OUR BELOVED DEACONESS HELEN IYEKOWA.

It is with profound sadness yet with hearts full of thanksgiving to God, that I pend this final farewell to our beloved mother, sister, and dedicated Deaconess Helen Iyekowa, who was called home to be with the Lord. Deaconess Iyekowa was a rare gem in the house of the Lord. A woman of unwavering faith, profound humility, and tireless service. To know her was to experience the love of Christ in living color. She did not merely hold the office of a deaconess as a title, she embodied the true calling of a servant - leader, walking through the corridors of our church and community with grace and a gentle smile, and a ready word of encouragement. She was a pillar in God's vineyard and a legacy of love and grace. We grieve, but not as those without hope. I take comfort in knowing that she has fought the good fight, finished her course, and kept the faith. Now, she rests from earthly labour at the feet of the Master. She loved and served so faithfully. Deaconess Helen Iyekowa, you have left your footprints on our hearts forever. I miss you deeply, but I say with a triumphant spirit; Good night, faithful servant.
Rest in the bosom of the Lord until we meet to part no more. PASTOR ASUQUO EKPOSON

TRIBUTE TO MRS. HELEN IYEKOWA

A Woman of a Large Heart, A Mother to All It is with heavy hearts, yet with gratitude to God for a life well lived, that we pay tribute to Mrs. Helen Iyekowa, a truly remarkable woman whose kindness, love, and generosity touched many lives. Mama was a woman with a large heart. She welcomed everyone with warmth and made people feel at home. Her hospitality was not merely an act; it came from a genuine heart of service to humanity.
She gave freely, loved sincerely, and cared deeply for those around her. She was indeed a mother to all—a woman who demonstrated love not only through words but through her actions. Her life reflected compassion, selflessness, humility, and above all, her love for God. Though our hearts are filled with sorrow because we will miss her dearly, we are comforted by the beautiful memories she leaves behind. Her kindness, laughter, love, and exemplary life will continue to live in the hearts of all who knew her.
We love you, Mama, but God loves you the most. May your gentle and beautiful soul rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord.Your legacy of love and service will never be forgotten.With Love and Deepest Sympathy MR. JOHN & MRS. KEMI OYINBRACKEMI

MY DEAREST IYE, IYA OSAZ.

You lived an exemplary life. You're always so special and wonderful. The vacuum you have left, I'm not sure anyone can fill it. It's was awesome knowing you. And thank you for sharing yourself with so many of us. Your Egusi soup was always on point and your moimoi was special. You were always so dependable and reliable I bless God for the grace he granted me and my family to have known you, ma. Till we meet at the saviour's side...Good night mommy. GLORIA OROSURU

TRIBUTE TO OUR BELOVED MUMMY IYEKOWA.

Some people pass through our lives, but a few leave footprints that can never be erased. Mummy Iyekowa was one of such precious souls. Mummy was a woman who loved relentlessly, cared deeply, gave selflessly, and welcomed people with an open heart. Her hospitality was genuine, her kindness was effortless, and her godly character spoke volumes about the woman she was. She had a warmth that made you feel at home, and a smile that could brighten even the simplest encounter.
One memory I will hold very dearly is the way she would call me “Aunty” with that beautiful, warm smile of hers. It was such a simple thing, yet it carried so much affection and respect. Those little moments now feel incredibly precious, and I will treasure them in my heart.
Mummy lived a life that touched people. She loved her family, cared for those around her, and reflected the beauty of a woman who understood the importance of kindness, faith and service. Her departure is deeply painful, but we are grateful to God for the gift of her life and for the many lives she blessed. Though our hearts are heavy, we hold on to the assurance that the God she served remains faithful. May her beautiful memories continue to bring comfort, and may the seeds of love, faith and goodness she planted continue to speak through her children and everyone she touched. Rest peacefully, Mummy Iyekowa. Your love, kindness and warm smile will be remembered. And that sweet “Aunty” will remain a beautiful memory in my heart.May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace.Until we meet again, rest well, dear Mummy. MRS. SURINA JOHN

TRIBUTE TO OUR MUMMY'S FRIEND.....WHO WAS JUST LIKE A BLOOD SISTER AKA MAMA OSARETIN .

Chaii..We lack words to express what you meant to our family in our growing stages. WE missed your roasted sweet yummy groundnut....IYE...as fondly called rest on....till that glorious morning... greet my IYA ALEX and our fathers...ooo ..We are grateful for the extent and road you have taken us through. The road we can’t be afraid anymore....sleep on IYE .YOUR CONSTANT SMILE WILL BE OUR HAPPINESS..Despite you have gone .OKERE EVELYN OROBOSA AND OWARE "S FAMILY.

NEIGHBOURS & WELL WISHERS

A TRIBUTE TO A SELFLESS FRIEND

She was a selfless woman, a friend a mother a sister to all, a good and wonderful woman i will forever remember her rest in peace. MAMA JUNIOR – NEIGHBOUR

TRIBUTE TO A MOTHER OF ALL....

It is hard to say goodbye to a woman who was more than a mother. You were not just a mother to your own children; you were a mother to everyone who came your way. You had a heart so large that there was always room for one more child. You took us all in with your kindness, your warm smile, your open hands, and your prayers which I always believed that your word of God bless you, always go a long way in our lives. Your kindness was not loud, it was lived. In the food you shared when you had little, in the way you called everyone "my child", in the way you corrected us in love and celebrated us as your own even if we are not from your own womb, You never knew a stranger. We thought we would have more time to enjoy your motherly love, but God, who knows best, has called you home. Though our hearts are broken, we are comforted because you lived a life of love and strength to everyone. Your legacy is not in things, but in the many children both born and adopted by love that you leave behind. You have left us, but your motherly love will never leave us. Rest well, sweet mother.Rest well, our mother of all.We will miss you forever, but we will never forget you.We love you, but God loves you more.PRINCE M. F. IKOGWE & FAMILY

Some people leave footprints on the sands of time, but Mama left footprints in the hearts of everyone who encountered her. Her warmth, acceptance, and genuine love made her unforgettable. She welcomed people with an open heart and made them feel like family. Though she has gone, the beautiful memories she created will live on. Sleep on Mama CHINAZA – Well wisher (Daughter)

TRIBUTE TO MY PRICELESS IYE

Iye as i fondly call you. It was really sad for me to hear about your demise. Your passing to Glory left me feeling very sad...I cried like a Baby but who am i to question my creator. I take solace in the knowledge that it was the home going of one of God's most precious saints You lived a good life and I am honoured my Kids and I becamed your Children. Thank You for the exemplary life you lived. Always showing Kindness, Peace, Harmony and Humility is KEY Death may have taken you from Us physically but the memories we have created over time will definitely last forever. God has you in His bosom and I have you in my heart forever Rest well my ever-smiling Iye till the resurrection morning when we all meet to part no more Ohiowie my Iyenogie....OBEHI EMMANUEL AND FAMILY

TRIBUTE TO A CARING MUM

It is with a heavy heart that I write this tribute to a truly caring and remarkable woman whose kindness touched the lives of everyone around her. You were not just a mother; you were a mother to many of us. Your warmth, love, generosity, and genuine concern made people feel safe and welcomed in your presence. You had a beautiful way of making everyone feel like family. Your home was a place of love, your words carried wisdom, and your kindness left lasting memories in the hearts of those who knew you. Though you are no longer with us, the love you gave and the lives you touched will never be forgotten. Your passing is a painful reminder that life is temporary, but the beautiful memories you left behind will live on forever. May Almighty Allah forgive your shortcomings, grant you eternal rest, illuminate your grave, and admit you into Jannatul Firdaus. May Allah also grant your children, family, and loved ones the strength to bear this great loss.
You may be gone from our sight, but you will forever remain in our hearts. Rest peacefully, dear Mama Osas. You will be deeply missed and forever remembered. AISHA - Well wisher (Daughter)

TILL WE MEET TO PART NO MORE

I would never have believed I was going to never see you again after one of your son's 45th birthday. If life was by pureness of heart, I’m sure you'd never have to go, knowing you was one of the blessings I will always cherish. You treat everyone equally that I got confused and couldn't identify in-laws amongst your own children until i connected the dots, you're a lover of Christ even till death, you stood strong for the family stronger than a pillar that refused to break, always happy, your words of encouragement the few times I had to discuss with you wasn't a mere talk but something from experience. Your family bond is to find because you continued the legacy grandpa (double chief) left, it's safe to say you left no cracked walls behind. Your activeness anytime we see made me prayed to have your kind as a mother-in-law. Rest well grandma Iyekowa. Ms. COKER Olayemi - Well wisher (Daughter)

A HEARTFELT TRIBUTE TO MY DEAR MUMMY...

Words are truly not enough to express the pain of losing a woman as loving, caring and remarkable as you Mum...Saying goodbye to you is one of the hardest things I have ever had to do, Hmm, God is unquestionable. The day we met first you accepted me, everything we shared together still new in my heart everyday, Your departure has left a void that words cannot fill...MUM I MISSED YOU. Your kindness was genuine, you never owe grudges, your heart was generous, and your love knew no boundaries. You had a special way of making people feel cared for...You always remind me, You lived a life of love, You gave so much of yourself to others You will never be forgotten....But I want you to know that your love remains. Rest well Mama, your memory will forever remain a Blessing....PASTOR ELIZABETH ATINUKE

A TRIBUTE TO OUR BELOVED GRANDMA

Grandma, words cannot fully express how deeply we will miss you. You were more than a grandmother; you were a mother to many, a woman whose heart was always open to everyone. Your love, kindness, generosity, and gracious spirit touched so many lives, and we are forever grateful to have known you. You made people feel welcome and loved, and your presence brought warmth wherever you went. Though we wish we had more time with you, we will treasure every memory, every laugh, every conversation, and every moment we shared.

And Grandma, we still cannot believe you left us without giving us the chance to finally taste your famous black soup It is one of those little things we will remember with both laughter and tears. Your absence has left a great emptiness, but your love will remain in our hearts forever. We will carry your memory with us and continue to show the same love and kindness you gave so freely to others. Rest peacefully, Grandma. You were deeply loved, you are greatly missed, and you will never be forgotten. May your beautiful soul rest in perfect peace. SIS BOLAJI

TO MY BELOVED SISTER AND FRIEND

Dec Helen Iyekowa, You're an epitome of courage warm and inspiration with so much more The best mother, grandma sister, and friend that anyone can ever ask for in a life time I will miss you so much I celebrate your life , you are a very resilient woman of Honor no matter the storms of life you never gave up Your sacrifices to serving humanity is one of a kind Thank you for touching my life in a unique way I love you dearly but God love you most.
